

Thanks to Nashville Primary Parents for funding the Nashville Elementary School playground makeover in August of 2016. Old mulch was taken out, new mulch was added, and new grass area was added as well. Primary Parents do a great job of organizing fundraisers, providing fun activities, and showing support to the staff all year long. Nashville staff and students greatly appreciate the support this group provides.