

---

On Wednesday, December 6, at late arrival, Nashville teachers worked together in groups to make igloos out of marshmallows. They had a 15 minute time limit and were all able to complete their “igloos.” They are all smiling because they are proud of their creations and they each get a duty covered by Mr. Zimmerly since they were all completed in the time limit!! Igloos are on display in the showcase by the front doors until Christmas!!